

Vacancy: Host/Hostess

The GULDEN LEEUW is a large, sturdy sailing ship reminiscent of the 1930s with the deck layout of a classic yacht. The ship was built in 1937 and has a rich history. Nowadays, the ship is characterized by her soundness, excellent sailing capabilities and multi functionality. We sail all over the world and have a passion for sail training, corporate hospitality and education. With over 10 years of sailing experience on the world's oceans, the ship and her crew have already enjoyed numerous voyages and events and are ready to embark on new adventures. Come sailing with us and see for yourself that the ship and her crew make a voyage more than just the sum of its parts.

We offer:

- A unique working place
- Working in a wonderful crew
- A challenging and varied job

Your skills:

- You have a good sense for hospitality
- You see solutions in every problem
- A real Team player
- A flexible work attitude
- Leadership experience is a plus
- English is the spoken language on board, if you speak German that would be an strong asset

Your work:

- Welcoming of the guests, point of contact
- Managing hospitality crew and chef, but always together
- Keeping the interior in good order
- Making orders and inventory
- Looking after the bar and buffets in all shapes and sizes

Are you interested?

Send your resume and motivation to: guldenleeuwcrew@gmail.com